March is here, bringing hints of spring and plenty of reasons to gather together at Seton Center! As the days slowly grow longer, we're looking forward to a month filled with friendship, fun, and a little extra luck along the way. Be sure to mark your calendars for Community Bingo Night on March 18th—it's a great opportunity to invite friends and enjoy an evening of excitement and prizes. And a gentle reminder: if you're planning to attend our upcoming Super Bingo Party, please sign up at least four days in advance so we can plan appropriately for catering and make sure everyone is well taken care of. We can't wait to spend another wonderful month with you!

WQED Producer David Solomon Presents: “Portraits for the Home Front” (The Story of Elizabeth Black)

Presentation, Screening, and Q&A Session
March 11, 2026 at 12:30pm
Brookline Center
Cost: $3 per person
(includes lunch)

Elizabeth Black left a promising Pittsburgh art career to join American Red Cross efforts during World War II. She proposed a unique project to sketch hundreds of soldiers, sailors, and airmen throughout Europe and send the treasured portraits to worried families back home – all across America. Seventy years later, Black’s son uncovered her fascinating memorabilia and shared it with WQED. The poignant story unfolds as we explore Black’s lost art career, seek out elderly veterans who encountered Miss Black on the battlefield, and present to amazed and appreciative families portraits that never arrived.

Portraits for the Home Front is brought to you by WQED’s Emmy® winning team of producer/writer David Solomon and photographer/editor Paul Ruggieri, with narration by Michael Bartley.
